

2023-03-05

The Royal Tennis Club of Stockholm, February 25 to March 5, 2023

New winners of KKDP 2023

We congratulate this year's Kungens Kanna & Drottningens Pris champions: Anna Pushkareva and Savva Rybkin!

Just like in Les Petits As, there was a win for Anna Pushkareva. She beat Ksenia Efremova (6-4, 6-4) and took home the win; she was relieved to return a second time to KK&DP and leave with the "Queens Prize".

- It was a tough match, and I want to thank Ksenia for a good match. I am so happy that I won in the end, says Anna.

The boys' final was also excellent quality; Jan Urbanski won the first set after a tiebreak, Savva Rybkin won the second 6-3 and was leading 5-2 when Urbanski, unfortunately, had to give up due to injury.

- I am sad for my opponent but still happy for what I accomplished and that I won, says Savva.

Thank you to Tennis Europe, the Swedish Tennis Federation, sponsors, staff, volunteers, officials, coaches, spectators, ball girls and boys; thank you all for a great and fun week. And a special thank you to our Presenting sponsor Elite Hotels and Caroline Chakraborty who made the price ceremony even more special with her presence.

For more information, contact Joe Beaton (Tournament Director) 0767-143 768.

Kungens Kanna & Drottningens Pris, which is a joint arrangement between the Swedish Tennis Association and the Royal Lawn Tennis Club of Stockholm, will be played February 25 to March 6, 2023 at the Royal Tennis Hall. Our partners make this event happen. Presenting Partner are Elite Hotels. Main Partners are BNP Paribas, Eurocard, Audi, Tempest Security, Ermitage Partners and G&W.